WASHINGTON, October 20.

THE MARYLAND ELECTION.

Governor Swann, of Maryland, has been issuing the approaching election in that State. He says: "I call upon the Democracy to rally in force. Vote as if all depended upon each individual vote. Remember the Democracy, who come to the polls on the 23d of October, who come to the rescue of the Baltimore Police Commissioners, who come to the rescue of the Democracy, who come to the rescue of the Democracy in order to secure a fair election, will be entitled to the gratitude of every man who is a true Democrat. Let every Democrat, who has not yet registered, see that his name is on the list. Let every Democrat who is not a coward, feel that the present contest in Maryland will culminate in victory. Let every Democrat who is not terrified to regain their lost ascendancy in local politics, fold the Loyalists, who have ruled the State for the past five years, who, during the war, displayed such courage and devotion, are determined not to submit to rebel rule, let resistance cost what it might, as the city of Baltimore will be the first to feel the iron heel of the conquering foe."

TO ATTEND THE CATHOLIC PLENARY COUNCIL.

It is now expected that President Johnson will attend the dedication of the Catholic Plenary Council of the Cathedral in Baltimore in October.

MISSOURI WAR CLAIMS.

Information has been received here that the Secretary Williams Commission, to investigate the war claims of the State of Missouri, will soon complete their work and send in their report before the end of October.

THE GUILLOTINE

is still at work incessantly, and a crowd of rascals in Congress assembled hastily adjourned and made up the passages and hide rooms of the White House, day after day, and night after night, in the hope to escape as yet remain in office. Their wishes are generally gratified at this or that appointment as soon as announced.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.

S. H. R. Kennedy, of Nebraska, has been appointed Receiver of the Land Office at Omaha, vice Stephen F. Purdy, Register of the Land Office at Petrol.

SENT TO BOSTON.

Lieutenant Colonel A. K. Smith, Surgeon, has been ordered to Boston, and reported Deputy Medical Director of Quartermaster General.

ARMY MEDICAL STATISTICS.

The report of the Provost Marshal General's Bureau, which is just out, contains much statistical matter of extraordinary value to scientific men. It is based on the statistics taken showing the number of men examined and found unfit for service in the army of the United States. It contains upwards of two hundred diagrams or irregular tables, showing the comparative operations of different diseases in the various States, districts, localities, and about measurements given among the physical superiority of American to foreign soldiery—over panorama of other matters ably.

CASH IN THE TREASURY VAULTS.

The amount of funds in the Treasury vault vault, at the close of business to-day, was $9,560,577—which $930,000 was in gold, $8,615,000 in legal-tender notes, $500,000 in National Bank notes, and $515,577 in fractional currency.

NATIONAL BANK CURRENCY.

The amount of National Bank currency issued during the week ending to-day was $20,145, and during the aggregate issue to date $175,504.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

The amount of fractional currency printed and issued during the week was $2,614,000, and the amount of the same was redeemed during the week.

BANK DEPOSITORIES.

Treasurer Spinner notes United States bonds in trust for National Banks as follows: Bonds deposited, $260,250,000; as security for public deposits, $26,163,000.

CHANGES IN DEPOSITORIES.

The disbursements during the week on account of the different Departments were: War, $5,324,618; Navy, $1,426,000; Interior, $1,000.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Dr. H. W. McCoy has been appointed Examining Surgeon for Pensioners at Alexandria, Illinois, vice Surgeon Hall, resigned.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—The President has approved of the removal from office of Collector Thompson, of the Fourteenth district, and the appointment of Mr. Hall, of Ohio, to the office. Mr. Graham, of the Fourteenth district, has been nominated for Assessor, vice Mr. Hall, resigned.

A large part of the capital is already built and the work is going on for the establishment of a railroad to the boundary between the Territories of Idaho and Montana. The Act of Congress authorizing the construction of this line for which, also, a land grant was made, was passed at the last session.

The Attorney General has rendered a decision that the Act of Congress prohibiting Americans from serving on board vessels of foreign States does not apply to the case of persons who have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, but have not yet been naturalized. The evidence of a declaration of intention is sufficient to entitle the party to the protection of the papers issued to the naturalized citizens of the United States, and to the protection of the Government.

The Turkish Fez is becoming the favorite head-dress of the gentlemen, and the Panama hat is giving the latter a run.

Dr. Livingstone's recent interesting letters to the London Times, dated as late as May 1st, 1866, are filled with exciting incidents of his travels in the interior of Africa. He is now at Ujiji, on the eastern shore of Lake Tanganyika, and intends to start for Lake Bangweolo, and thence to Lake Nyassa, which he will explore, and then return to Ujiji. He has been absent from England nearly four years, and has not received a letter from home during that time. He says he is in excellent health, and is cheered by the hope that he will soon be able to return to his family.

A London letter writer expresses doubt, as to whether the French nation will ever have a popular representative system, for the reason that the French women, and their sway in France now, as in the old days, persist in the practice of "powdering their hair," which, he says, "disgustingly speaking, she is in the habit of dusting with flour." Assisted thereto by the hairdresser, the fashionable French lady powders her hair with flour, and then combs it out, so that it falls in a shower on her shoulders. Not content with this, she will frequently, if not usually, powder her face, neck, and arms with the same material, and they then look like the proof and impression of a wood-cut. Many pretty Opperdunettes, Conservatoires, supported by the Mayor, will probably resist the Government in the matter of the whole issue at their command, holding that they can only be removed upon regular trial and conviction. Then, it is said, by Gabriel Duprez, that the present excitement in Maryland will culminate in violence on the 23d instant. Democrats, determined to regain their lost ascendancy in local politics, fold the Loyalists, who have ruled the State for the past five years, who, during the war, displayed such courage and devotion, are determined not to submit to rebel rule, let resistance cost what it might, as the city of Baltimore will be the first to feel the iron heel of the conquering foe."

The New York Board of Education refuses to adopt the Prussian system for 1867 at present. The expenses of the school system for 1867 are, as estimated, $1,000,000.

It is estimated that the crop of dried apples in Michigan, and other fruits, which will be marketed this season, will amount to about one million bushels.

The Rev. Dr. Hall, of Lawrence, Kansas, with grasshoppers so as to render the Sabbath day a day of rest, has issued a proclamation to that effect, and has called upon the people to observe next year.

The Democracy of Greenwood County, Kansas, recently held an Enrolls, proposed the nomination of desirable candidates, and then adjourned to meet on the day of the general election next year.

The registry of voters for the cities of New York and Brooklyn took place on Tuesday last. The number registered in the former city is 120,000, and in the latter 70,000.

The Colt Fire Arms Company, of Hartford, Conn., have received an order for one million dollars worth of arms, which they are to manufacture at the rate of 1,000 per day. The order is for the Russian Government, and is to be executed within the next year.

The Secretary of State has issued a proclamation declaring that the Fenian Congress at Cincinnati, which met on the 15th inst., for the purpose of organizing a Government for Ireland, is an unlawful assemblage, and warning all persons against participating in its proceedings.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that Mr. Edmund Wood, of Lawrence, Ky., defendant, brought a suit against Mr. Abraham Hall, plaintiff, for the recovery of a large quantity of property alleged to have been stolen by the latter from the former during the rebellion. The case will be tried in New York, and Mr. Wood was arrested in New York, and held to bail in the sum of $10,000, which he failed to give, and was committed to the custody of the Sheriff. The case will be tried in the United States Court.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that Charles Lafayette Bonaparte, a grandson of the Duke of Reichstadt, and a great-grandson of Napoleon I., is a resident of that city, and is employed as a reporter on the Commercial. He is a young man of twenty-two years of age, and is said to be a good scholar and a fine writer

The Defeat Election.

Mr. Nasby's Opinion on the Cause of the Defeat of the President.

NEBRASKA.

A Curious Magnificent Vision.

[From the Omaha Republican, Oct. 8.]

The following are the result returns received at this office up to this hour. Those marked with a star (*) are official:

Election	Majority.
Dakota	33
Cass	11
Otoe	11
Nemaha	7
Richardson	7
Pawnee	7
Johnson	7
Gage	7
Lancaster	7
Saunders	7
Douglas	1,500
Washington	7
Burt	7
Dodge	7
Cedar	7
Dixon	7
Dakota	7
Total	1,625
Majority's majority	1,625

A report—apparently reliable—also reaches us from Plattsmouth, Cass county. We place it at 11 on the table, to be on the safe side.

An election was held in Buffalo County, Nebraska, on the 13th inst., on the Republican ticket will, undoubtedly, elect Gen. Thayer, Governor, "by the vote in your pocket."

"Hey boys," replied the wretched man, "if you don't let me alone I'll vote for Seymour." The people would come into the house holding their sides and shouting with laughter, and I was speaking, with what I considered, displays of oratory. The paper would publish my every blunder, and the mistakes which confused me somewhat, and the ridiculous words would read so as to make me appear a fool. I couldn't akkount for, I acksoned for you smiths' like a dozen votes, but they was them ekalized by the Democrats, who had hard work to get 'em out. Union people, you see, don't like to vote. It's no use talking, you can't coalesce.

Hush! I tell Johnson, remove him!

And the poor fellow was plucked out.

Secretary Welles knowed war was the best.

Seward, I am sorry to say, is getting very old on the question. If Sumpter fell, he says, he will be willing to let it go. If they quit the Presidency and the Cabinet, he says, he will be willing for somebody to begin. Now, and the, and the, treeths which I considered his only hold over her improved the people more than they did.

Seward is so confident that the election would her his all right cord it her his pocket-book to bet on the result. Indeed, he proposed to me that I should consider the election over.

I was reluctant to give my views, which I did.

"My lords," said I, "none or you heerud me the last time I was here. I left the House of Lords with the impression that you was the most lunkheaded, the most ignorant, the most pig-headed set of men I ever met. I go further, and say, that you are specked at Fallsburgh. Wot then? Why the offices. Offices is the cheerest in good. That is one wich I hold in Kentucky I consider be indicted for part with on no account, but you can't run a party on teas, because there ain't enough to go round.

My hope, on my return from the Philadelphia Convention, I harried around in the Democracy, which is in convulsions, and in distress. Some of the leaders was ready to back down. Democracy. They jawned down there.

"If world say that the war was over, they—they had got most to, and that they—they would vote for Seymour.

Others, I told you the daughter of a merchant in New York, who had refused the hand of a Colonel of a regiment for her relation, and considered herself insulted.

Mary Daniel was one of the well known Daniel lines and was popular as a vocalist.

Among the prominent was the others, Jeremy, Hon. Jeremy Hunter, of Jeremy Hunter & Co., Jeremy Hunter, Jr., and the Misses Jeremy Hunter, all of Jeremy Hunter Hall, Jeremy Hunter, Jeremy Hunter, Jeremy Hunter

DAILY, (SUNDAY) EDITION.

THE CITY.

Surveillance Rose will give the first lecture of the season on Germany in this city, in the North Hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, this evening. The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views.

CHANCERY CASES.—The trial of the lawsuit growing out of Gardner's failure, before the Federal Court will commence on Monday morning. The document is to be called in Clerk of John Mullins, to-day for the number of Thomas Foley.

YESTERDAY.—Alfred McKnight was fined $20 on Saturday afternoon for vagrancy. He was found guilty of having the implements of burglary in his possession, and of having a bad character.

A CHICAGO YAGRANT.—Richard Fleming, a colored man, was before Justice Millikin on Saturday morning, charged with vagrancy. As he thought one day would be sufficient for him to remain in the police lockup, he pleaded guilty to the charge, and the fine being remitted he was discharged.

SHARPS ON CHARITY PLOTS, &c.—We notice that Inspectors of Internal Revenue are requesting numerous parties for information of any one to establish a charitable institution, or to solicit donations, &c., not to be sold. The stamp is one dollar for all orders over twenty-five dollars, and $1 for all orders over twenty-five dollars and under $50.

DEFAULTER.—The Prairie Bank was defaulted in the sum of $1,000 on Saturday last. A judgment was in favor of the Mechanics' National Bank for $2,000, on a bill of exchange, drawn by Cyrus H. McCormick, Jr., and accepted by the Prairie Bank, and the Prairie Bank was defaulted for the $1,000 last named amount.

DYA CORE OPERATIVE.—One Peter Dermont acknowledged the receipt of fifty cents, of the collecting money on the fine for Mr. C. Tschaen, a merchant, at the corner of Jefferson Grove street and Twenty-second street. After stating that he had been unable to collect the money, he said he was a poor carpenter and a free Driller, he "installed," and has not since been seen in the city.

BRAD DEATH.—We call the attention of parties having property in the vicinity of the South Division, to the advertisement of L. B. Arthur & Co., No. 115 State street, and to the fact that they have a large number of applications for property in that city on file. Parties in search of residences may find here a good opportunity to suit themselves. Mr. Arthur keeps an office and employs a number of clerks, and is invested with a large property.

THE HISTORY OF THE GREAT AMERICAN CONFLICT, by Horace Greeley, is now complete, and may be obtained of George A. C. W. Eastwood's, No. 75 Randolph street. Those who have purchased three portions of the work in advance of publication, are warmly cautioned against the spurious publication of the rest of the work, which is being issued in Cincinnati, and which is not to be completed by the original publishers. Mr. Eastwood has the original copy of the work, and will furnish the remainder of the work to those who have purchased the first three portions.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—On Saturday afternoon, Lyons, aged two, who resided at the corner of North Clybourn avenue and Division street, fell overboard of some pleasure boat. He managed his acrobatics in part by stealing a pair of pantaloons from John Blackwell, a French, who resides on the North Side, and who was on the street. Peter went in Michigan, but returned two days after, and was arrested and brought before the police Court on Monday afternoon, where he was committed to the Recorder's Court for trial in $2 of bail.

PRISONER.—James Stephens, C. G. I. R. R., telegraphs from St. Louis that his engagement in the city will detain him from visiting Chicago until Tuesday next. He adds that he will positively be here by that time, as he is engaged to address the Young Men's Christian Union on Tuesday evening, the 30th instant. Those desiring to engage him for that evening will please address him at the Sherman House, Chicago, or Captain Swan, at No. 126 State street, on or before the 30th instant.

SUICIDE.—Lorenz Lorenz, Jr., James Rogers, of St. Illinois, was arraigned before Commissioner Hoppe on Friday afternoon on the charge of forgery. After examining the witnesses for the prosecution, the accused was bound over to appear before the next Grand Jury in the sum of $2,000.

A CHICAGO MAN RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—Mr. Chidsey, of Joliet, Illinois, was arraigned before Commissioner Hoppe, and bound in the sum of $1,000 to appear before the District Court and settled by the Grand Jury.

ARREST OF NEW ENGLAND THIEVES.—It is reported at the Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, and the St. Louis Railroad companies, were arrested on Saturday afternoon, on the grounds, it is said, of a large quantity of goods stolen from stores in the city, and sold at auction on the grounds. It is a pitiless and a partial case. The work will probably continue for some time. What is to be done with the poor wretches who have been driven to this extremity by the poor relief? Will they be left to starve? Will they be left to the cold charity of their better-situated fellows, which too often has the only chance of saving them from the darkened pathway of the lost?

THEATRE COMPANY NEWS.—Mr. Donovan, who performed on Case street, was fined $25 Saturday for violation of the health ordinance. Mr. Donovan's case is a hard one. He was arrested in a public house by the gentlemen of police of the neighbors as to the cause of the disturbance, and was told that he was arrested for the cleanliness of the ground. He was told that he would have to do so, and that he would be fined $25 for the offense. The offense was the offense, and the offense was the offense. The offense was the offense, and the offense was the offense. The offense was the offense, and the offense was
